

The Welcome Swallow Gallery Permanent Collection

The Permanent Collection

The Gallery has allocated street-facing wall space for a permanent collection sourced from our most established artists. From time to time and following art works being sold, the collection is refreshed. The Main Hall of the gallery is used for ongoing exhibitions.

The Gallery also uses this space to highlight compositions that have a 'stand-alone' quality. And on occasions when artists donate their work to the gallery, the permanent collection holds silent auctions of these paintings.

Unlike exhibits in the Main Hall of the Gallery that belong to a curated show, items from the permanent collection can be purchased immediately and uplifted by the buyer. In this sense, whereas curated exhibitions last a defined period, the permanent collection is only replaced one sold painting at a time.
